

Riddle 1

Just like us, some things are crafted layer by layer, Seek out the machine that builds wonders with quiet care.

Riddle 2

*You found the shaper of dreams from strand to strand,
Now follow the warmth where soft breads steam,
Your next clue waits where dough becomes real.*

Riddle 3

*You're moving through this with elegance and pace,
Now search for the keys your mom taps in her workspace,
Beneath her fingertips your next clue rests.*

Riddle 4

*Your next clue isn't ready, so pause for a bit,
It will find you when you've finished with Youth B's spirit,
Someone new will place it in your hands.*

Riddle 5

*Return to the place where our forever began,
Where photos were taken and you showed your hand,
The spot we shared with the world long ago.*

Riddle 6

*From the place where we started, follow the path
home,
Where tonight turns magical and love softly grows,
A cozy escape is waiting for you.*
